SUPERVISORY TRAINING DAY

Thursday, May 21, 2009

PROGRAM

Keynote Address: Laying the Foundation for Resilience, One Relationship at a Time

Tiffany Romero began working at Tocaloma Summer Day Camp in 1993 as a lifeguard. While attending USC, Tiffany continued her summers at Tocaloma holding a number of different positions including: Counselor, Aquatics Director and Office Manager. In 1999, she accepted the position of Executive Director. Since becoming Director, Tiffany has strived to create a camp culture that fosters a sense of belonging, clear communication and good old fashioned fun. In doing so, Tocaloma has consistently maintained a camper and staff retention rate of over sixty percent with a waiting list in all camp programs.

Keynote Address: Leading from the Inside Out

Paige Haber, M.A. is an Instructor in the Department of Leadership Studies at the University of San Diego, where she is also pursuing her PhD in Leadership Studies. Paige's professional work is centered around leadership training, education, and development, particularly in the areas of leadership development programs, leading with integrity, emotionally intelligent leadership, and women's leadership.

EDUCATIONAL SESSIONS

Educational sessions designed to enhance the development of new leaders include time management, leadership, staff development and collaborative behavior management for youth.

Featuring :

“Programs on a Shoestring Budget” Series – breathe new life into your programs while saving money during the current BUDGET CRUNCH!

Standards Bootcamp – Have an accreditation visit this summer? Open to new leaders as well as seasoned management staff, this day long program will get you squared away with all your standards before the start of summer. Learn best practices for accreditation preparation and identify the most commonly missed standards so they get your attention now! Bring in your accreditation documents for feedback from seasoned visitors and have your burning questions answered by a Southern California/Hawaii Standards Co-Chair!
